Hour of Prayer for Our Youth

- Are you a teenager facing a tough decision about where to go to college?
- Are you a parent of a teenager who is concerned about the group of friends your child is hanging around?
- Are you a grandparent that is worried about the future of the Catholic Church and wondering how the younger generations can keep the faith alive?
- Do you have a classmate with a serious illness?
- Are you a parent that is at a loss for how to engage your child in the faith?

All of these concerns can be addressed through prayer!

There are many problems and stressors facing our youth in today's world, including bullying, drugs, underage drinking, unhealthy relationships, academic and athletic pressure, pressure to make future career decisions, how to address a suicidal friend, and how to incorporate one's faith into one's own life, among many other issues. As youth minister, I would like to begin a weekly hour of prayer for our youth in the church on Mondays from 4:30-5:30PM. Any of our youth, parents of youth, or anyone interested in praying together is welcome to join me!

At the beginning of the hour, we will pray together for a few moments, before allowing for silent prayer time. Anyone that is interested and available can come at any point during the hour, even if only to drop off a prayer request, and stay for whatever amount of time he or she needs. If you are unavailable during that time, but wish for your personal request to be prayed for, you may email it to amy.davis@saintbarbaraparish.com or call the parish office and ask to speak with Amy. Specific names will not be made known to the group of prayerful people, unless it is requested for me to do so.

Thank you! Amy Davis

Why Do We Do That?

ANAMNISIS and OFFERING

“At one time we called the beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist and before the eucharistic prayer the “offertory.” Now we refer to this transition time as the presentation and preparation of the gifts. The reason for this change in terminology is the that the offering actually takes place during the eucharistic prayer, after the institution narrative (the recounting of the Last Supper that is part of every eucharistic prayer.) So, for example, in Eucharistic Prayer II we pray, “Therefore, as we celebrate / the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, / we offer you, Lord, / the Bread of Life and Chalice of salvation, / giving thanks that you held us worthy / to be in your presence and minister to you.” Much is happening in this short prayer.

First, we remember Jesus’ death and resurrection. In Greek, “remember” is the word anamnesis. This remembering, however, is not simply a recalling of a past historical event. Liturgical anamnesis is a wholly present act in which the meaning and import of what we are remembering is in the present, happening now. The self-offering of Jesus on the cross and his exaltation at the resurrection are, indeed, happening in this very liturgical celebration when Jesus ceaselessly gives himself over to his Father for our salvation.

Second, we are counted worthy to be in God’s presence as ministers not because of any act of our own, but because we are one with the divine Son who is being offered. And if the Son is offered, so are we. Our ministry as assembly is to offer ourselves along with the risen Christ (see GIRM 79f.) And just as Christ’s self-offering is unceasing, so must ours be. Our surrender to God’s transforming action in the eucharistic prayer is our offering of ourselves at this moment during liturgy as a pledge of our self-offering and as a commitment to a Gospel way of living.”
