TABLES IN THE NARTHEX

If you have items that you would like to have put out on the tables or items to have put on the bulletin boards, please drop them off at the parish office and Father Matthew will look them over and have the office staff place them on the tables or bulletin boards.

Stewardship: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." MATTHEW 5:3

The phrase "poor in spirit" can be confusing. Think of it in this sense – poor in spirit means depending on God's providence and not depending on our own self-reliance. Being detached from earthly things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice, and mercy). Denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.

A Note from Fr. Matthew

"People of the earth"

Farmers and gardeners will all tell you: Humus is the gold in their fields and gardens. Composed of the decay of plant and animal matter, humus is the most organic and richest part of the soil. When it is tilled and broken open to receive seed and rainfall and sunlight, the dark humus soil yields the most bountiful harvests and the most beautiful of flowers.

The word humility comes from the same root as humus. Like the rich, broken soil of humus, humility is the capacity to be open to receive the seeds of experience — both the painful and the enriching — in order to grow in wisdom and understanding. Humility is the grace to let ourselves be "broken" — broken of our pride, our ego — in order to realize a harvest far greater than ourselves, a harvest that is possible only through generous openness, selfless giving and enlightened gratitude.

Humility is the grace to plant in hope, to persevere through droughts and storms and reap in joy.

[Suggested from a prayer by the Rev. David P. Jones.]

Jesus calls all who would be his disciples to embrace the "blessedness" of the Sermon on the Mount: to possess the humility to "detach" from material things so as to "attach" ourselves to the things of God; to be honest enough with ourselves to realize our need to be forgiven and reconciled with God and family and friends; to embrace the spirit of "mercy" that enables us to consider things from the perspective of others and feel their joys and sorrows; to be makers of "pea

Have a great week and I'll see you in church. Fr. Matthew
