11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.” - Mk 4:30-32b

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to a mustard seed, the tiniest of seeds. When planted, the tiny mustard seed grows into a tremendous tree with large branches. So too in each of our lives small things can have profound effects. God can use one of our more insignificant gestures to radically change another person's life. It may be the kindness of a smile, our willingness to accommodate someone, listening to someone's story, helping someone who is hurting, standing up for someone who is right or complimenting someone on something they did. We all have God given gifts and talents. What are some of yours? Our task is to use our talents creatively, consistently, lovingly, and generously. Because we are always guided by the Holy Spirit, things that may be insignificant or unnoticed to us can profoundly change the life of someone else. While we may think we are small and insignificant, God can make us large and magnificent. All we have to do is open ourselves to being used. We trust that God will take care of the rest.

Dear Friends,

This Sunday, 136 couples from our diocese will celebrate their wedding anniversaries with Bishop Bonnar, in person or virtually, at Saint Columba Cathedral. Since we have some couples from our parish attending this uplifting event, it seems appropriate that we pray for our own families as well.

Father, be with our family as we navigate our challenges. Teach us to trust in your plans and remember your faithfulness. We put our sufferings and fears, our hopes and dreams, into your hands. Be with everyone who suffers, especially those who are alone. Make our family, like the Holy Family, a place of prayer and love—and a refuge for others who suffer. Mary, help us to ponder, as you did, the meaning of our experiences, especially when we don't fully understand the circumstances in our lives. (Prayers for Catholic Couples, The Word Among Us Press, 2017)

I would also like to thank everyone who helped pull weeds, plant flowers, and mulch the flower beds around the church and school over the last few weeks. We had a large group of parishioners out beautifying the grounds. It was amazing seeing it all come together! Thank you to Paul and Kim Leonard for helping to organize this project. I would also like to thank Joel & Chris Fichter, Maurice, Michele, Ashley and Katelyn Eberhardt, Logan Eberhardt, Bob & Mary Kring, Jake Kuhn, Tom & Jane Hathaway, Dan Sirgo, John Blackstone, Tyler & Elijah Kuhn, Jason Rambo, Nate Aston, and Connor Redman. Your time and talents are appreciated and the area around the church and school looks great!

Have a great week,
Fr. Brian

Stewardship: "For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil." – 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10

We are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure; everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life, but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

Save a life. Contact Congress.

WHAT

Congress is trying to force Americans to pay for abortion.

HOW

The Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from funding elective abortion for 45 years. Now, powerful members of Congress want to take away these laws that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century.

WHAT HAPPENS WITHOUT THESE PROTECTIONS?

Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion.
