MILITARY COLLECTION: Next weekend our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services. This is the only US diocese responsible for providing pastoral care to men and women serving in the US Armed Forces, enrolled at a US Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 US Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers or working in the federal government beyond US borders, including those from our own parish and diocese. The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military for programs and administrative costs.

BINGO HELP: With the closing of St. Barbara School, we have fewer volunteers to help with weekly bingo at the St. Barbara Campus. Bingo is an excellent fundraiser for the parish and also supports Catholic Education. Help with bingo does not require a weekly commitment. We are currently seeking support in three ways: 1. One volunteer is needed each Wednesday to provide a baked good for sale. 2. One to two volunteers to serve food and beverages, and to close the kitchen at the end of intermission. (4:00 pm to 8:00 pm each Wednesday). 3. One to two volunteers to help sell instant bingo tickets during Bingo and at intermission. Our goal is to compile a list of volunteers in each area and create a rotating schedule. Please consider if you and a friend could help in any of these areas. If we are able to get enough volunteers, your commitment would only be once every 4 to 6 weeks. Please call Janet Bickel (330) 806-7366 if you are interested in helping.

YOUTH MINISTRY: November 6th, youth group will be at St. Joseph's in the youth room from 6:30-8. We look forward to seeing you all!

GIVING TREE - Saint Joseph's: The tree will be decorated with gift tags by next weekend. Tags must be returned with the gift card, in an envelope with the tag number on the outside by November 28. Box will be provided under the tree for the envelopes. If unable to return to the church, call Mimi Gozdan, 330-265-7201 and arrangements will be made to get the gift. If you prefer to give a monetary donation, send to the parish office or place in collection basket labeled "Giving Tree St. Joe's". Thank you!

YOUNG ADULTS: St. Michael's is excited to reboot Spirits and Spirituality! This is a gathering of faith-filled young adults, married and single, in their 20's and 30's. We explore issues and topics that relate to the Catholic Faith in a fun and casual environment. Join us for an informal gathering of food, faith, and fun on Thursday, November 3rd at 6:30 pm at the Royal Docks Brewing Company in Plain Township. Central, St. Thomas High School and Middle School welcome you to join them for Open Houses on Sunday, November 6th from 12pm-2:00 pm. Location is Our Lady of Mount Carmel Hall, 343 Via Mount Carmel Avenue, Youngstown. Cost is $25.00 per person. All proceeds benefit Catholic Charities Basic Needs Assistance Programs. To purchase tickets visit www.ccdoy.org or contact Angela at 330-744-8451 x 321. RSVP by November 18th, 2022.

SAINT PHILOMENA MASS: Please join Holy Family Parish in Navarre on Saturday, November 5th to celebrate a First Saturday Mass in honor of St. Philomena. Sacrament of Reconciliation begins at 8:45 am with rosary and chaplet at 9:00 am, followed by Mass at 9:30 am.

Stewardship: "But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" -LUKE 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

A Note from Fr. Matthew

Mrs. Harris Goes to Paris"

One of the most charming films of the year is Mrs. Harris Goes to Paris, based on the novel by Paul Gallico.

Ada Harris is a London war widow, one of society's "invisible" people. She makes her living cleaning houses and flats. Her skill and hard work are equaled only to her good will and grace. In one house, she sees a beautiful Christian Dior gown that takes her breath away. Ada vows to own something so beautiful. Even though the price is well above her means, she manages to scrape the money together and treks off to Paris.

When she arrives at the House of Dior to buy a dress, Ada is rebuffed by the haughty director. The imperious Madame Colbert does not want a shabby little Englishwoman anywhere near the Dior brand and their aristocratic customers:

"Why do you come here, Mrs. Harris? Evidenment, the rich and the titled must be seen, admired, copied. But this Dior dress that you desire so much, where will you wear it? At the Vienna Opera Ball? Or Queen Charlotte's? Will you wear it to polish floors? Or will you keep it shut in your little wardrobe? A Dior dress is designed to astonish and delight. How will you do that, Mrs. Harris? Forgive me for saying this, but you are a nobody, invisible. How will you give this dress the life it deserves?"

But Ada will not put off. Opening her bag, she dumps the 500 pounds she's saved on Madame Colbert's desk.

"It's my dream," Ada says. "And my money's as good as anybody else's." Realizing she has been defeated, Madame Colbert snarls, "You may buy your dream, but what will you do with it?"

A great deal, it turns out. It's not the gown she scrapes to buy but Ada herself who "astonishes and delights." Her "pluck" wins her the admiration and support of many of the Dior staff who come to her rescue — and Ada returns their help by her kindness and wisdom. As her dress is being made, Ada serves as a compassionate listener, a wise matchmaker and even a labor leader. Her "invisible" skills as a cook, housekeeper and seamstress win over even the most skeptical of the Dior creators.

For the first time in her life, Ada Harris refuses to settle for being "invisible." She deserves to own an item of beauty even if it will just hang in her closet (spoiler alert: it won't). Ada discovers her courage and generosity are as much "works of art" as the meticulously constructed gowns of Christian Dior.

Madame Colbert's protectiveness of the privileged status of Christian Dior is driven by a Pharisee-like consuming sense of superiority over others. Ada Harris, on the other hand, possesses the tax collector's humility, enabling her to realize the goodness and mercy of God in her own life and to be the means for others she meets to know that same goodness and mercy in theirs. In the eyes of God, no one is "invisible"; in the heart of God, all are embraced as "astonishing" and a "delight." We best give thanks for God's love for us by returning that love to one another; in accepting one another as God accepts us, we honor God as Father of us all in our honoring one another as brothers and sisters.

Have a great week and I'll see you in church. Fr. Matthew

BOXES OF JOY: Just a friendly reminder, there are still some boxes available if you want to help make Christmas joyful for a child who would otherwise not experience joy this Christmas. The boxes need to be returned to your respective churches by November 5th and 6th. Thank you for your help and may God Bless You abundantly.

PATRIOTIC ROSARY: Come join us on Saturday, Nov.5th for the Patriotic Rosary on the west side of the church at St. Barbara's. We pray for our nation and the world, for a fair and legal election and for wisdom when we go to the polls on Tuesday, Nov.8th. Hope to see many of you at 12 noon on Saturday, Nov.5th. Any questions call Verla, @ 330-833-1125.
