LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Deciding to travel the challenging road of forgiveness is choosing a journey toward greater freedom. Resentment, anger, and clinging to past hurts not only keep open wounds that long for healing but bring us down paths that are eventually self-destructive. Harboring grudges and withholding forgiveness not only shut down relationships with others, but with God and myself as well. To choose to forgive another person, regardless of how grave the wrong, is a choice to be released from bondage to past wounds and scars and to pursue the gift of life and love again. Who among us has not wrong or sinned against another? We certainly would want God to understand, forgive, and show mercy upon us. It is hypocritical of us to not extend that same grace to our neighbor.

listening.*

SEPTEMBER 13th - 24th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

The message of today's readings talk about God's mercy and compassion for us sinners and the need for us to let go of wrath, anger and revenge as we forgive our neighbor. I could think of no better message for us in our world today as we see the collateral damage caused by anger, hate, violence and the racism that plagues our country. Whether we look at our individual relationships or any group that we may belong to, we see the human tendency to nurse a grudge or never forgive the wrong that has been done to us. It is also true of our families, local community, nation or world.

Peter's question to Jesus about "How often must I forgive?" reminds us of our own tendency to limit forgiving others. I can speak from direct experience, without going into details, of how I have been betrayed or hurt by others. Sometimes these experiences occurred in my pastoral work and at other times I have been the one who hurt others or hung on to angry feelings. The old saying is still true: it is easier to forgive than to forget.

Our Scriptures for today broaden our horizons. We are reminded in chapter 5 of Romans that we have all sinned and deserve God's judgment. God sent his Son Jesus to be the offering for our sins on the wood of the cross, forgiving us and giving us the grace of adoption. We can rejoice in our rebirth in the Holy Spirit. We are a redeemed community, given the mission of being a healing, reconciling community. Our second reading from Romans 14 reminds us that we are a community in the Lord Jesus who are responsible for one another. The time for action is now. All summer the U.S. Conference of Bishops have spoken out on the recent issues of racism and violence that we have all been witnessing and some of us may have experienced. We pray for the grace to forgive 77 times. If I have offended anyone, I ask for forgiveness. It is important that we frequent the Sacrament of Reconciliation to help in the process of conversion. Please take the time and come to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Saturdays from 3:30 to 4:15 or if those times do not work call the Parish Office (330) 833-6898 and make an appointment.

Thank you so much for your generous response by your donations to the relief of all those affected by hurricane Laura in our country. There is still time to make a donation by writing out a check to St. Barbara Parish. We will then send one check to Catholic Relief Services.

Love and prayers,
Fr. Brian

Someone sent a note in last weeks collection asking that we start doing the prayer to St. Michael the Archangel after Masses. If that was you, please call the rectory so that Fr Brian can talk to you. Thank you!

Parish School of Religion (PSR) – Safety Precautions and the Parking Lot

PSR begins on Sunday, September 13! Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we must limit the number of people in the building during PSR. Parents are not permitted in the building during pick-up or drop-off. As a result, we will be blocking off the space between the church and school buildings with cones during dismissal from 10:00 AM to 10:20 AM on Sunday mornings. If you prefer to park in this area for Mass, please plan to arrive early (before 10:00 AM) or late (after 10:20 AM). Parents will be waiting outside to pick up their children after PSR. We will also be utilizing multiple doors for dismissal. This will be a change from our normal procedure, so please be extra careful of children in the parking lot to ensure the safety of all. Thank you! If you are new to the parish or have not yet registered for PSR, please contact Amy in the parish office at (330) 833-6898 or by emailing amy.davis@saintbarbaraparish.com.
